What Are a Hedgehog's Spines?

By Leo · 2026-08-17 · 68 words · L2

고슴도치의 가시는 무엇일까

A hedgehog is a small, round animal. It has many sharp spines on its back.

The spines are like tiny needles. They keep the hedgehog safe from bigger animals.

Baby hedgehogs are born with soft spines. The spines get hard after about two weeks.

Isn't that cool? The little hedgehog grows up fast!

Some hedgehogs have dark spines. Some have lighter ones. Every hedgehog is a little different!

Why Do Sunflowers Follow the Sun?

By Leo · 2026-08-17 · 74 words · L2

해바라기는 왜 해를 따라갈까

Sunflowers are big, yellow flowers. They are very pretty!

Young sunflowers move during the day. They face east in the morning. Then they slowly turn west.

The stem grows more on one side. This makes the flower turn. It follows the sun!

At night, the stem grows back. So the flower faces east again. Wow, isn't that cool?

Old sunflowers stop moving. They just face east all day. Bees love to visit them there!

Why Does Your Echo Come Back?

By Leo · 2026-08-17 · 70 words · L2

메아리는 왜 되돌아올까

Have you ever shouted in a big space? Your voice comes back to you!

That returning sound is called an echo. Sound travels through the air.

Sound hits a wall or a hill. Then it bounces back, like a ball!

Animals use echoes too. Bats make sounds to find food in the dark.

Isn't that so cool? You can make your own echo — just shout near a big wall!

한글 요약

소리가 벽에 부딪혀 돌아오는 것을 메아리라고 해요. 박쥐도 메아리로 먹이를 찾고, 우리도 큰 벽 앞에서 메아리를 들을 수 있어요.
